

Welcome: by Michael Garrod Chairman of the Parish Council

Invocation: Rev Tim Weatherstone.

Once again on this 4th June we gather in profound gratitude, to remember and honour those who died as a result of the Liberator crash now more than 70 years ago.

The issues that they fought for have not faded in our minds, nor their dedication to the cause.

This year of all years we will soon as a nation have cause again to decide what words like partnership, freedom and democracy should mean for us all.

Here in front of us we are reminded as though we needed to be, that these are not idle words or empty concepts and that what they gave their lives for is every bit as important today as it was back then.

“Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping, those who have died for their country in war and peace; those whom we knew, and those whose memory we treasure, and all who lived and died in the service of their country and mankind”.

Naming of the Fallen By Ken Hamer
Chairman of the Garveston Twelve Trust*

All: “May they rest in peace”

Wreath By: Michael Garrod for the Parish*

Rev Tim Weatherstone: calls for one minute of silence
One minute of silence.*

Exhortation: by Michael Garrod*

“They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old, age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn, at the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.”

All: “We will remember them”

The Kohima Epitaph: By Suzanne Cadney*

“When you go home, tell them of us and say, for your tomorrow, we gave our today”.

The Benediction: Rev Tim Weatherstone.*

A closing prayer as we each in our own way re-dedicate ourselves to peaceful living amongst our neighbours, family and friends:

O God whose son Jesus Christ is the Prince of Peace, we dedicate ourselves once more to the cause of peace in our communities. Grant us we pray clarity of thought and singleness of mind as we seek the good of those around us; and may God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit, bless, preserve and keep you, and the families and friends of these fallen, today and evermore.

Amen.
